BakerRipley Hosts Election Trivia Night: Promoting Civic Participation and Informed Voting

HOUSTON – BakerRipley is pleased to announce its upcoming Election Trivia Night event, taking place on Friday, October 6, from 5:00 PM to 7:00 PM at the BakerRipley Harbach Campus. This engaging evening promises a blend of entertainment and education, offering attendees the opportunity to test their political knowledge, interact with local election candidates and foster community connections. Attendees can look forward to:

Trivia Challenge: Participants can compete in an intellectually stimulating trivia competition focused on electoral themes, with opportunities to win valuable prizes.

Meet the Candidates: Engage in insightful discussions with local candidates, providing a platform to discuss key issues and policies directly with potential representatives.

Community Building: Network with fellow attendees, fostering relationships and exploring collaborative initiatives to enhance the local community.

This free, public event underscores BakerRipley's commitment to empowering citizens through informed decision-making and active civic participation. Registration for the event is open here. For more details, please visit bakerripley.org or contact communications@bakerripley.org.
